M'KINLEY

Urges Conservative Action Regarding Cuba.

FATAL WOOLEN MILL EXPLOSION.

Cleveland Will Veto the Cuban Resolution.

TEXT OF THE CAMERON RESOLUTION

Chicago, Dec. 19.—President-elect M'Kinley in an interview here today urges conservative action in regard to Cuba. He believes that the neutrality laws should be strictly adhered to, and that congress should be careful about taking any action that will precipitate war.

Fatal Explosion.

Providence, R. I., Dec. 19.—An explosion occurred here this morning in a woolen mill which resulted in the death of three persons. The explosion is thought to be a case of spontaneous combustion.

Drove Her Out of Town.

Old Town, Tenn., Dec. 19.—Jane Gordon, the woman who was implicated with Maried Hatfield in the murder of Jonas Trail was mobbed today and driven out of town. If she returns her life will be in danger.

Convicts Escape.

Anderson, Ind., Dec. 19.—A number of convicts effected an escape from the penitentiary last night by tunneling under the prison walls. Their escape was not discovered until after day light.

CLEVELAND'S VETO

Will Kill the Cameron Bill Should it be Adopted by Congress.

Washington, Dec. 19.—It is stated here on most reliable authority that President Cleveland will veto the Cameron resolution should it pass. The text of the resolution, as agreed upon by the senate committee on foreign affairs, is as follows:

"Resolved, By the senate and house of representatives of America in congress assembled, That the independence of the Republic of Cuba and the same is hereby acknowledged by the United States of America."

"Section 2. That the United States will use its friendly offices with the government of Spain to bring to a close the war between Spain and Cuba."

SOUND MONEY LEADERS.

Gen. Buckner and Chairman Bynum at Their Party's Headquarters.

New York, Dec. 19.—Gen. Simon Bolivar Buckner, of Kentucky, recently candidate for vice president on the gold Democratic ticket, and ex-Congressman William D. Bynum, of Indiana, chairman of the national committee of the National Democratic party, were at the Fifth Avenue Hotel yesterday. Chairman Bynum said to a reporter that the National Democratic party intends to continue the fight for sound money, and the establishment of permanent headquarters in New York is for the purpose of the distribution thoroughly and systematically of sound money literature.

SPANIARDS DESERTING.

The Ranks of the Spanish Army Are Being Depleted.

Key West, Fla., Dec. 19.—Reports from Havana state that the Spanish soldiers in the Pinar del Rio section are deserting quite rapidly, that sickness on the troops and desertions have made reinforcements necessary there. Weyler is keeping all the troops he can in Havana. The news from Matanzas province is disquieting.

Palace officials refuse information as to the results of the engagements at Teco and Purgatone this week. It is known that the Spanish lost many men and much provisions, arms and ammunition. At Neavaraz in these engagements a large detachment of insurgents gathered Tuesday and the Spaniards, under Col. Jose Ingles, attacked them. The insurgents ambushed and outflanked the Spaniards, sending them flying after two hours' fighting. The Spaniards lost seventy men and the Cubans twenty. A large quantity of arms was collected from the field and taken away by the insurgents.

A reign of terror exists in the small towns in that section, as the country is full of soldiers of both sides, and the country people who are disposed to remain neutral can not do so. More than fifty men have been killed there the past fortnight by both sides. Many families have come into the larger towns as supplies are not abundant and fears of short rations have occasioned much trouble.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.

Mr. James P. Thompson Leaves The News Publishing Company.

A called meeting of the directors of the News Publishing Company was held and Mr. James E. Robertson was elected President instead of Mr. James P. Thompson, whose stock he purchased. Mr. Henry E. Thompson is secretary and Mr. Richard Rudy is treasurer.

This is to fill vacancies until January 1st, when the officers mentioned above may be re-elected for the year.

Mr. James P. Thompson, who had been identified with the "News" for years, is now out, but as to what he will do in the future he has not said.

ON A DEED.

Suit Filed for Title to Land Near Clark's River.

Mr. Joseph L. Friedman this morning filed suit in the circuit court against Mrs. Elbridge Palmer and the administrators of the Palmer estate to obtain the deed to some property near Clark's river.

The plaintiff alleges that two deeds were given to the land, but never recorded nor acknowledged to, and that both were lost. He asks that the court adjudge that Mrs. Palmer owned no interest in the land and require Mrs. Palmer to execute deed for her undivided half-interest.

MURDERERS INDICTED.

The Grand Jury Reported Late Yesterday.

Will Likely Not Adjourn Today as Thought Probable.

The grand jury yesterday made another report to the circuit court.

Dock Olden, who killed George Fitzpatrick on Dry River Front a few weeks ago, was indicted for voluntary manslaughter.

Sam Lewis, who shot and killed Hamp Milligan in the county last Saturday night, willful murder. Lewis has never been captured.

John Lawrence, an ex-butcher, was indicted for stealing a cow. The case against Ernest Elmendorf, a young man charged with running a gambling machine at the fair last September, was ignored by the grand jury.

The case against Nick Miller, colored, charged with shooting at Elmer Miller near Phil Stephen's saloon on West Washington street several days ago, was also dismissed. This virtually dismisses the charge of false swearing against him, also. Miller swore in the police court that he did not do the shooting, but was held for the shooting and also for false swearing.

THE GRAND JURY.

Interferes With the Smithland Injunction Suit.

Detectives Greer and Crowl Did Not Get Off Today.

The injunction suit of Detective J. K. Greer to enforce the commonwealth paying to Marshal Richardson of Harwell, the $200 reward offered for the capture of John Mahan, recently acquitted of the charge of murder, did not come up today at Smithland.

Detective Greer and Police Judge Sanders, Prosecuting Attorney Reeves and Marshal Collins intended to go up, but when they ascertained that Greer could not go they deemed it useless to go themselves.

The detective was on his way to the boat when he was overtaken by Deputy Sheriff Uterbach and required to go before the grand jury. When the latter got through with him the boat was gone.

A BRILLIANT RECEPTION.

The Cotillion Club Entertained By Mrs. McGary.

All the Society People There and the Fair Visitors Were the Guests of Honor.

The reception given last evening at the palatial residence of Mrs. W. E. McGary, on Jefferson street near Twelfth, in honor of the Cotillion club, was largely attended.

The older society set was in attendance, as were also many in the younger set. All the young lady visitors were there, and the evening was one of unalloyed pleasure and enjoyment.

The house was beautifully decorated in evergreens, and nothing was spared to make the event unsurpassed in brilliancy and pleasure.

BIG WAD

Stolen From Bud Elrod, According to Reports

Bud Elrod was robbed of about $335 at one of the Court street resorts night before last, according to reports.

He went to sleep in one of the houses, and when he awoke his roll was gone. So far as is known the matter has not been reported to the police.

Wife, your husband would be satisfied with a large arm rocker or a couch. You can find them at Gleaves & Sons.

A Small Benefit.

The Charity ball at the Palmer House netted $12.26, which has been turned over to the Geneva fund.

Buy your holiday goods at Noah's Ark.

WORE MASKS.

Henry Finney, Colored, Riddled With Buckshot.

CALLED OUT LAST NIGHT

From His Home One Mile From Mayfield and Shot.

A MOB DID THE WORK.

Henry Finney, colored, who resided about one mile north of Mayfield, was called out of bed last night by a mob of seven men whose identity was concealed beneath masks, and riddled with buck shot. He was killed instantly.

So far as could be learned, there was no justification for the deed. There has been considerable feeling against the colored people in some portions of Mayfield, according to reports.

Not long since a white man living near Finney recently caught the latter in his cornfield, and having a gun abused the darkey. The next time they met the darkey had a gun, and abused the white man.

Last night seven masked men went to Finney's residence at a late hour and called him. Bob Finney, his brother, opened the door, and without further ado the mob shot Finney, who was in the act of rising from the bed, in the abdomen, killing him instantly. Buckshot were used. The alarm was spread, but no clue was obtained to the identity of the men who did the shooting. An inquest was held this morning and a verdict rendered in accordance with the above facts. Finney leaves a family and from reports did not bear the best of reputations.

NOT CONFIRMED.

The Rumor in Regard to an I. C. Passenger

From St. Louis to New Orleans Via Paducah and Still a Rumor.

The St. Louis several months ago published a rumor to the effect that someone in the near future the Illinois Central would begin running a passenger train from St. Louis to New Orleans, via Paducah. Since then other papers have on irregular occasions republished it, and today one paper stated that the rumor had been confirmed.

But it has not been confirmed, and while it would be an advantage to the city and is eminently desirable to have this passenger service, yet a fact is a fact, and the rumor has not been confirmed.

The highest local railroad official of this system this morning stated that no one knew whether such a thing would be done or not except General Manager Gilles, of Louisville, and that he had confirmed or denied nothing.

"It is not likely that it will be done," stated the official, "principally because better time can be made by another route, and also because the necessity of crossing the river on the transfer boat would handicap the road."

PLANTING HOOPS.

Mr. George Lee's Mouth "Sewed."

His Colt Tried to Raise Something.

Mr. George Lee, who resides about five miles out on the Hinkleville road and is serving on the petit jury at the court house, was the victim of misplaced confidence and a colt's hoof yesterday.

He walked to near the festive feast and the latter playfully planted his hind foot directly over the horrified juror's mouth. The lips were cut and not more than a half dozen teeth were dislocated by the unexpected shock.

Mr. Lee was not seriously hurt, however, and is today attending to his duties as juror as usual.

EIGHT YEARS.

John L. Johnson Will Go to the "Pen."

CHARGED WITH HOUSEBREAKING

The Jury Gave Him Eight Years This Forenoon.

OTHER NOTES FROM CIRCUIT COURT.

The case against John L. Johnson, the colored upholsterer, who appears to be about two-thirds Caucasian, for housebreaking, was concluded in the circuit court this morning shortly before 11 o'clock, the jury finding the defendant guilty and fixing his punishment at eight years confinement in the penitentiary, which is just two years less than the extreme penalty, ten years.

Johnson and Will Skelton were arrested last summer for breaking into the Leech residence, on North Fourth street. About $300 worth of carpets, wraps and clothing was stolen and hauled away in a wagon. There were numerous other burglaries about the same time, in which a wagon was invariably used, and the mystery puzzled the police for some time.

Johnson and Skelton were arrested and the latter gave bond. The goods, however, could not at first be found. The case was put off from time to time, and one day Dr. J. G. Brooks found an open letter lying on his desk. He read it to find out to whom it belonged, but couldn't make head nor tail of it, as he expressed it.

One day he gave it to Marshal Collins, who read it. It told all about where the goods had been sent, gave information in regard to Johnson's wife at Evansville and as soon as Capt. Collins read it he caught the thread and forthwith unraveled the mystery. The goods were found in Evansville at the depot. Johnson's wife not having taken them out. They were brought back and returned to their rightful owners.

Johnson was undoubtedly one of the slickest thieves that ever infested a city.

It was thought all along that he would get about the limit of the law. When the case was called day before yesterday, a motion was made to hold the trials of Skelton and Johnson, who were jointly indicted, separate. This motion prevailed, and today Skelton's case was continued until the next term of court.

There is another charge of housebreaking and one of grand larceny against Johnson.

In the case of Hibbard Bros. against Derrington in the circuit court today a judgment was rendered for $87.

The grand jury this forenoon returned three indictments, one against John Stringer and Charlotte Greer for adultery and immorality, respectively, and one against Dan Martin, colored, for stealing from the tow boat, Jack Frost.

The case against George Winston and Vina Stubblefield, colored, for breaking into a boat belonging to Capt. New Roberts down in "Dogtown," was called this morning. Motion was made for a separate trial, and the Stubblefield woman's attorney entered a plea of insanity.

The case against Vina Stubblefield, for housebreaking, was dismissed on account of her mental condition.

The grand jury will not adjourn this afternoon having considerable more work to do.

Henry Crump, charged with housebreaking, is on trial this afternoon.

Dan Martin, for petty larceny, was given thirty days in jail.

THE IMMIGRATION BILL.
There are substantial evidences that the present congress will pass an immigration bill that will in a measure enable the government properly to restrict foreign immigration. This country has been made the dumping ground long enough for the undersirable members of the surplus population of European countries. It has been difficult to frame and pass an adequate bill for the reason that this country has already such a large foreign population, and for the reason that this nation owes much to its immigrants and, to their descendants.
Paupers or contract laborers are now prohibited from coming here and when discovered are sent back whence they came.

The Lodge bill, which has just passed the Senate as a substitute for the house bill passed last winter, prohibits the entrance of any and all aliens into the United States who are unable to read and write the language of their native country or some other language, except in the case of parents or grand parents accompanying their children or grandchildren, who are admissible under the educational test.

The bill that was passed by the house, for which this is a substitute, provided that persons between the ages of 16 and 60, unable to read and write, should not be admitted, but it provided no test of ability to meet these requirements. The Lodge substitute adopted by the senate provides that the inspection officers at the ports where aliens are admitted shall be furnished with copies of the constitution of the United States, printed in all languages, and printed on numerous pasteboard slips, containing five lines each. The immigrant is to designate the language in which he desires the test to be made, and must draw, from the box containing the slips, one slip and read and afterward write it in the presence of the inspectors. Unless he is able to read and write the words of the slip so drawn at random, he shall not be admitted.

This bill, however, is lacking in one particular, in that it does not exclude aliens who do not relinquish their residence in their native country but come here merely for temporary employment. It is to be hoped that the House will so amend the bill that it will contain this provision. We now have enough idle people without throwing open our gates to give temporary relief to foreign laborers. The motto of congress in framing an immigration bill should be "America for Americans."

A SENSIBLE POSITION.
The silver leaders at Washington must be given credit for good business sense and a considerable amount of political wisdom if the following special from Washington as to their plan of action be correct. The telegram says that the position of Senator Teller is as follows:
"He is not opposed to tariff legislation and would do nothing to hinder it, but might even help it along, tho' because he believed that it would bring back prosperity, but because he believed that the sooner the tariff bill was passed the sooner would the eyes of the people be open to the fact that the tariff alone could not restore prosperity.
The silver men do not expect to abandon their efforts for silver, but they realize that if they block the way for Republican tariff legislation the Republicans will throw the responsibility upon them.
They will employ no filibustering tactics, and some of them may vote for the bill. They are protectionists, but they believe that protection will fail without silver, and they argue that the sooner protection is lifted again the sooner will it fail, and silver will have its day. In fact they profess to believe that early tariff legislation will bring the triumph of silver earlier, and they want the bill passed at the extra session." This is a sensible position. Give the present administration a chance.

If prosperity comes, then will the silver states prosper with the rest of the country. But if a sound currency system and a legitimate protection to American labor do not bring a return of the prosperity that this country is justly entitled to, then the silver people will have something substantial to talk about.

A JUST JUDGE.
Pugillan received a knock down blow in the decision of the California judge in the Fitzsimmons injunction suit to restrain the Anglo-American bank from paying to Sharkey the $10,000 purse which became his by the decision of the referee. The judge concluded his decision as follows:
"There is no question in my mind that the parties in this engagement or exhibition, or whatever you call it —the complaint calls it a boxing contest—are indelible under the law, and that the people who witnessed it are amenable as law breakers. I understand that these exhibitions are given because the people and police want it at them. But no court will recognize any such proceeding. And there is no doubt in my mind that this injunction should be dissolved, and it would have been dissolved if the motion had been made immediately upon the heels of issuing it, as the court, in fact, expected. The order to dissolve the injunction will be granted, and the complaint be stricken from the files."

As interesting and significant feature of the debate this week on the Lodge immigration bill in the senate was the intensity of feeling shown in behalf of the Cubans. An amendment was offered, providing that the immigration bill shall not apply to persons from Cuba during the continuance of the troubles there. This was explained to be intended to prevent the law's operation to prevent Cubans from entering this country to escape from the cruelties and oppression which surround them there.
This was adopted with only five dissenting votes, and the tone in which it was discussed showed that the feeling in behalf of the people of that fortunate island is growing stronger every day, and likely to make itself manifest in some action by congress at an early date.

The public will learn with great regret the fact that Hon. Roswell G.
Horr is lying at the point of death.
Mr. Horr has been a member of congress from Michigan, but for the past several years he has been the financial editor of the New York "Tribune." As such he has contributed more than any writer to the success of the Republican party. His writings have been very voluminous, but it was owing to the fact that he was thoroughly conversant with the tariff and the money questions. He wrote especially for the working people, for those who had not the time nor perhaps the inclination to make an exhaustive study of public questions.
His death would be a great loss to the New York "Tribune" and to the whole American people.

The city of Muskegon, Mich., is agitated over the question of "onions", whether or not children who persist in eating the gay and festive and somewhat loud smelling esculent shall be allowed to go to school, with their breaths. Some of the lady teachers, who are undoubtedly from the effete East, have threatened to hang out of the window the first pupil discovered harboring an onion breath. The war is yet a stand off and we have yet to learn who is to be the victors,—the Bostonese ideas of propriety or the onions.

The "Globe-Democrat" makes a good point on South Carolina when it says that that state "boasts that it raised 764,700 bales of cotton this year, beating all the other states in the number of bales to the square mile under cultivation. The fact is not mentioned that the black farmers raise the cotton in South Carolina, while the men who are permitted to vote raise something else."

The movement of gold to this country has again begun. The steamer Mariposa brought this week to San Francisco $1,740,000 from Australia.

WEATHER AND BRAINS.
Psychological Effect of the Storm on the Latter.
The psychological effect of the weather has long been a most interesting study. Most people feel the influence of dull days, east winds and extreme cold, and physical. An arctic cold and tropical heat are unfavorable to literary composition, for example, and we speak of cold "freezing our wits," an expression which is not altogether figurative.
Goes the fourth part his cap and hat and the whole class of dental students.
Did you scream?" Mayme—"I don't know whether I did or not. As soon as the professor tackled the tooth those horrid students set up their college yell

A Turfed Railroad Bed.
Grass will grow on a railway bed if the ties are covered with soil and seed sown. This can be verified by a visit to the Fairmount park trolley line near the Belmont avenue entrance. This section of the track resembles two parallel rails laid through a green meadow, and the presumption is that the railway management intended to make the entire track from end to end like it. If the grass can be kept green in dry soil as wet seasons the presence of the track will hardly mar the landscape at all. Even the poles and trolley wire are not as unsightly as the electric light poles and wires which have been allowed to disfigure the park in every direction. There is a possibility, of course, that the grass between the tracks may prove a hindrance to the operation of the line even if it is ornamental, but this is hardly probable if the grass is kept well mowed. A railway line with no ties in sight and carpeted with a luxuriant greenward will be a novelty at least.—Philadelphia Times.

Freezing Air.
Most students of chemistry have seen water frozen in the average temperature of a room, but few have ever seen the air solidified so that it could be handled like ice or any other tangible article. But this has been done by Prof.
James Dewar, of London. The operation is carried on through several stages and with various agents. Gases are reduced to liquids under great mechanical pressure, then suddenly liberated. Certain gases under pressure reach a temperature 148 degrees below zero, and the evaporation of these is one part of the process. Pressure of almost 2,000 pounds to the square inch has been employed for the gases. The experiments are enormously expensive with present appliances and are of use only as demonstrations of possibilities. With further research may come more simple and less costly methods and materials.
The future of freezing has great promise and its value cannot be estimated.

ARTISTS AMONG FURRIERS.
None But the Best Cutters Intrusted with Seal Garments.
If furs make grand ladies there will be a great many grand ladies this winter, for furs are the fashion. Every woman "just loves" furs, but it is doubtful if women know as little about anything else as they do about these warm and beautiful things; that is, about the way they are made up.

The men and women who work for furriers are known to the trade by their work, just as an artist's work is known. And the work is divided up most carefully. The man that cuts seal in the furrier's shop is at the top of the list. He is a finished workman and can cut anything. Others may be able to cut other furs to good advantage and artistically, but they will not be intrusted with a piece of seal. So it is with the sewers. Some women earn good wages sewing common furs, but the boss would be apt to have an attack of heart disease were he to see a bit of seal in the hands of any but a regular seal sewer.

The seal sewers are the artists among fur garment makers. They make the finest and most regular stitches. And each one has some peculiarity of style that stamps her work so that it is recognized wherever it is seen by one of the craft. Whenever an old seal garment is taken to a furrier to be made over the seal sewers examine the stitches and comment on the work.
"I'll bet that's some of Mrs. So-and-so's work," they say, and then they relate some anecdote about the woman.

There used to be a seal sewer in Brooklyn who was known as the best.
She has been dead several years, but some of her work was recognized the other day in a Pittsburgh shop where an old saque had been taken for remaking. This finest seal sewer suffered like other geniuses, and she died so many who have reached the top of the heap in other fields have died. She drank herself to death. She never worked steadily, but whenever she was "at herself" she was given work and the artisans of New York would compete for her services. Her work to-day is held up as a model for all seal sewers.

Li and the Monocle.
Li Hung Chang, the famous Chinaman who visited this country a short time ago, made quite an impression in England for his wit and apparent ingeniousness, although it was more than suspected that some of the old gentleman's remarks were not so bland as they seemed. One incident especially amused the Britishers. It was when Li Hung Chang met Joseph Chamberlain, who affects a monocle. The China-man noticed the single eye-glass, and took it for granted that the colonial secretary had lost the use of one eye, and he offered him his sincere condolences.—Harris's Magazine.

Mexican Burials.
The Mexicans have a queer way of burying the dead. The corpse is tightly wrapped in century-plants matted and is placed in a coffin hired for about a shilling. One or two natives, as the case may be, place the coffin on their heads and go at a trot to the graveyard, where the body is interred, and the coffin is then returned. The wealthy class use the tram cars as hearses, and the friends follow beside the car on foot.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Building Made of Ashes.
A building has recently been erected by Herr Wagner, an architect in Lim-burg, solely of material formed of ashes, without any admixture of sand.
It is claimed that hard, natural stones of almost every variety have been successfully imitated with this very cheap material.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

A Good Filling

Was the remark of "Dusty Rhodes," as he arose from his monthly square meal. We use "good fillings" in all our work. Although they are of a different character. Our fillings are of the best material obtainable, and are put in with the greatest care and skill. Give us a trial and we are satisfied that you will be pleased with our work.

Now Ready. Best Sorts—SMALLEST Prices.

We want to draw your children's trade; we want your children to grow up in our Shoes, then they will trade with us all their lives. If you are not trading with us, ask one of our customers about our Shoes, and about our way of treating our clients—and their feet.
